

Katie Schwab's quilt is part of Reduct: Abstraction and Geometry in Scottish Art at RSA Lower Galleries, Royal Scottish Academy, The Mound until 22 November 2020

ART GUIDE

The great thing about art is it provokes all kinds of different responses. Part of the endless fascination with it is its vastness, presenting itself in many interesting and inventive forms. From oil on canvas to sound installations, there is a piece of art out there for everyone. But how do you incorporate it into your life? There are many more ways to enjoy creativity than simply hanging a print. Thanks to the variety of styles and movements, there are kooky ceramics, hand-painted pottery and far-out rugs that reflect taste and express individuality. In the following pages see what appeals to your art-loving side – open it up and let the affair begin.